

The Electric Association, Inc., serving Chicagoland since 1926
SUSTAINING MEMBERSHIP INCENTIVE PROGRAM

Sustaining members are those who contribute to the Electric Association over and above their annual dues payment. These firms demonstrate their commitment to the advancement of the Chicagoland electrical construction industry. The funds are allocated towards development of new programs and services valuable to our industry and membership as a whole. Sustaining members are recognized in all we do. You can read more below about the marketing benefits your company shall receive by participating in this important program.
